

OSCARYVAN GARZÓN

Oscaryvan Garzón, pianist, producer, teacher and Colombian composer. He began in music at the age of eight by vocation and inspired by his father who is also a musician. But with a solid foundation in the classical repertoire for piano, his interest in jazz and improvised music has led him to start a new path in his career, participating in the academic components of international festivals such as the VIII Panama Jazz Festival, the IX International Music Festival of Cartagena and receiving master-classes of pianists such as Jean Michel Pilc, Danilo Pérez and Enrico Pieranunzi.

Oscaryvan Garzón Trío is one of the most consolidated music Colombian jazz projects nowadays. It is formed by Luis Guevara on double bass, Juan Camilo Anzola on drums and Oscaryvan Garzón on the piano and keyboard. Winners of national festivals as VI International Jazz Festival in Villa de Leyva, XX Festival Jazz al Parque, XXVII I International Jazz Festival at Teatro Libre; also they have been invited to the SUMAQ International Festival in the city of Lima (Peru) last March 2018. National winners of the program of incentives from the Ministry of Culture and invited to the closing of Pastojazz Festival 2018.

“Cumbre y asfalto” (Summit and asphalt) is titled the first album of the trio, recorded under the label Masai and produced by Oscaryvan, before its launch has already been praised by the critics and public in general. With eight original compositions steeped in urban experiences, personal experiences and creativity of the group, in addition to a version on the style of the trio of the theme “Clocks” from British band Coldplay.
